The Green Murder Case, a most exciting story, the kind one ought not to read just before going to bed but the kind he reads then because he can't let it alone. We liked the story so well that we have The Canary Murder Case now.

We hope you like your new location and room and that you find it warm and cozy. Lots of fun moving! What?

Mother and I would love to have you come up February 1 (Friday) and spend the weekend with us. This is a week from the coming Friday and will give you time to get a permit from home and plan your work ahead. I will meet you at the D. L. & W. station the time I did at Thanksgiving, that is, 4:50 or near there. We will do our best to have a good time. Grandmother will bake you some good buckwheat cakes for breakfast and some other good things which you will enjoy.

Helen Keller is coming to Scranton Sunday.

I have a ticket for a reserved seat at the Capitol Theatre at which place she is to appear so I am looking forward to a great treat. She comes as a guest of the Lions Club, for they sponsor the work done here for the blind and next week is devoted to a drive for help for these unfortunates.

Your people were here last Wednesday or Tuesday evening. Your father had been helping get the water pipes in good shape at Mother's house. He was pretty tired, I guess, of the job. He worked all day Monday and Tuesday getting it in shape. I made some fudge tonight and had pretty good luck. Wish you had some of it but it is not good enough to send - it is too soft.

With much love and best wishes, Edna
